Nosey Neighbor ...

by Barbara Craig
Going through Albany Sunday afternoon, it was quite evident that Fandangle season was in full swing. Special flags, a green drape forming the background for the white long horned steer head silhouette, marked the streets. Store windows were decorated with antiques, scenes, and pictures showing the history of the town.

The people of Albany are going all out to make the Fandangle a truly outstanding show again this year. The much publicized outdoor presentation is expected to draw upwards of 6,000 people during the five performances, two of which were held last Friday and Saturday evenings. Other performances are scheduled tonight (Thursday), Friday and Saturday.

Stopping in the drugstore, I found that very little had changed since my high school days. I noticed the addition of a television set, maybe for the benefit of the "drugstore" cowboys, and refrigerated air conditioning.

The business is in perfect harmony with the Fandangle setting. While many amusement centers are spending a great deal of money to recapture the atmosphere of the "Old West" in their refreshment parlors, Albany, has it already in Weaver-Oates Pharmacy, the spot I knew for many years as Sanders Drug.

Those who stop in to visit during the Fandangle will notice the long black marble "bar" with a generous foot-rest. There are no stools and those who are waiting to be served their refreshing drink are quite content to "lean." Looking around, one notices the fixtures which line the walls and see the brass handles on the drawers that form the base and sliding glass doors which cover the neatly arranged drug store items on the shelves above.

Of particular interest to me was the use of stained glass to not only add a decorative touch but to also designate the areas of the store. Across the back of the building I noticed the words, office, radiophones, and prescriptions, spelled out in the stained glass.

Was it nostalgia that caused me to notice these things? Call it what you may, but I found it to be quite interesting way to spend a few minutes in my old home town. I also wonder why I never noticed these things, or at least they did not seem too important, when I was having a Coke, there after school?

I did not see any familiar faces, you know how these kids do grow up in a hurry and those that were in diapers when I left may be the ones behind the counter now. Then John Earl Beall, former mayor and a staunch backer of the Fandangle, came in. His first words were, "are you here for the Fandangle?" That is the kind of enthusiasm you notice in the town.

John Earl was president of our graduating class and is now a building contractor who chose to return to Albany for his home. He and his wife, Ruby, are planning a reception in their home this afternoon to honor Lt. Gov. Preston Smith who is to be in Albany for the parade and Fandangle.

This past weekend was a very important one in the life of several area towns. Winters celebrated their Diamond Jubilee with a great deal of activity, including a speech by Paul Harvey. Knox City's Vegetable Festival was also termed a great success.

This proves what can be done in small towns when an idea is born and followed up by a lot of hard work and co-operation on the part of the citizens.

This weekend, here in Hamlin, the Hamlin Riding Club is staging their annual rodeo and the people of Hamlin will have a chance to be a part of its success.

County Oil Valuations Take Sharp Drop

Oil valuations in Jones County took another sharp drop last year, it was revealed when the commissioners court sat last week as an equalization board to hear valuation pleadings and to receive report from Pritchett and Abbott, consultants.

This shrinkage in valuations, it was pointed out by County Judge Leon Thurman, will mean a loss in tax revenue of $4,200.

New Criminal Code to Increase County Cost of Maintaining Courts

When the new criminal code which was signed into law by Governor Connally last week becomes effective on January 1 of next year, it will mean that Jones County's cost of maintaining courts will take a severe jump upward.

County Judge Leon Thurman said Monday that he had read the new code twice and although the full impact may not be revealed until further study, it is apparent that cost of attorneys alone may run the county about $2500 a year.

The new code also will call for the county employing a probation officer at a cost of this much or more.

Judge Thurman pointed out that a recent ruling of the U. S. Supreme Court held that all persons charged with a crime had the right to be represented by an attorney and if they were unable to hire the attorney themselves, then the state must appoint one and bear the cost.

The new Texas criminal code goes further in stating that from January 1 on, this same rule will apply to misdemeanor cases as well as felony. Under present law, a court-appointed attorney receives only $10 in the event of a guilty plea but this amount will be increased to $25, the fee now if there is a trial.

Furthermore, Judge Thurman said, in the case of the defendant is released on bond, the attorney receives no money from the state. Under the new code, he will.

Judge Thurman also pointed out that under the new code there will be no more suspended sentences. These will be replaced with probated terms and the county must employ a probation officer. The law spells out in detail who can qualify for this post and this cost must be borne by the county.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gay visited his sisters, Mrs. O. L. Jenkins and May Gay Saturday. Mr. Gay is editor of the Moody Courier at Moody.

Thomas J. Rouths to Observe 50th Anniversary With Reception

The Golden Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Routh, Rt. 1, will be celebrated with an informal reception Sunday, June 27, from 3 to 5 p. m. in the Fellowship Hall of First Baptist Church. Hosts for the occasion are their daughters and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Lesley Shelburne of Snyder and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brown of Midland, and Mrs. Routh's sister, Mrs. Grace (Rothell) York of Arcadia, Calif.

Members of the houseparty will be the grandchildren and three participants in the original wedding. These are Mrs. Callie Lou (Owens) Francis of Wichita Falls, one of the bridesmaids; Mrs. York, who was flower girl, and Tate May of Abilene, who was an usher.

Grandchildren of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Shelburne, Tommy, Lynne, Anne, Judy, Jan, Jimmy and Carol Shelburne, all of Snyder, Sarah Lou, Betsy Alice and Bill Brown, of Midland.

Mr. Routh, a native of Jones County, was born near Abilene

March 17, 1893, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Routh.

Mrs. Routh, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rothell, was born March 15, 1893, near Granbury in Hood County.

The couple met in 1913 at a party at the home of Rev. L. B. Owens who was pastor of the Hamlin First Baptist Church. They were married June 22, 1915, by Rev. J. B. Henderson, who was then pastor of the First Baptist Church where they were married.

The couple has lived in Hamlin most of the time with the exception of two years at Crosbyton and about four years in Fort Worth.

For many years, Mr. Routh has been engaged in farming the land which his parents moved in 1906, from near Anson.

Mr. and Mrs. Routh are both active members of First Baptist Church where Mrs. Routh for over 35 years taught a ladies' Sunday School Class, and Mr. Routh was secretary for a Sunday School Department.

All friends of Mr. and Mrs. Routh are invited to be present for the informal reception.

FAIRVIEW NEWS

by Mrs. Elmer Joiner
The old saying "scarce than a hen's teeth" applies to the news out this way, this Monday morning. The weather hasn't even made news the past week, most people have their cotton planted for the third time, if they hadn't gotten it up before. If the rain will just hold off for a few more days, it will all be up. Most maize has been laid by, is headed out and hopes are high for bumper maize crop this year.

We had a "big" crowd at church Sunday, with several visitors. Now hearing it called a big crowd would probably be amusing to those visitors who are used to large congregations, but it looked good to us for we barely have enough to carry on some times.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Herington and two sons, spent Saturday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ford, accompanying them to church Sunday morning.

Mrs. Buck Joiner and Susan, spent Saturday night with the Elmer Joiners and came to church with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Flavil Holmes had their children, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Holmes and Melody, Big Springs, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wright, Melinda, Keenin and Randy, Abilene, visiting them Sunday, also in church with them.

It seems that we made a big mistake, which wasn't the first, last week when we reported that Mr. and Mrs. George Wainscott went to see Jimmy at Wichita Falls, when they didn't go at all, Jimmy came home for the weekend. He also was home again the past weekend.

Nancy Ford came in from college, at Denton, to spend the weekend, with her family, the H. L. Fords.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosenbaum attended a get together of relatives, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moss, Anson, Sunday afternoon. They reported 35 persons present.

Diane Ford left Sunday, with her friend, Connie Christian and her family, to spend a weeks vacation at Lake Texoma and Texas Under Six Flags.

Visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ford, Sunday, besides the Heringtons were Joe E. Ford, Hamlin, and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ford.

4-H's Attend Camp

Three girls from Old Glory attended District III Leadership Camp at Lueders on Monday through Wednesday of last week.

The girls presented a demonstration before the general assembly on the Importance of 4-H Records and How We Manage to Keep Our Records Current and Up to Date. The girls were also responsible for a skit for the first evening's entertainment. The last evening the group attended a party.

Judy Sander won first place in the Junior Division swimming races in both the long and short distance contest.

Judy White participated in the Vespers Ceremonial on Monday night and in the subject matter skit on You and Your Careers before the general assembly Wednesday morning. Rita Baldree was in the group that presented a skit on recreation that morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Mick Myers and girls, Louise, Kay and Lois, moved to Morgan last week. We regret to lose this family from our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Callicotte and children, Guy and Jill, were here last week visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Letz and Mr. and Mrs. Delos Callicotte.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

America in its early days depended on the "GOOD BOOK" for its guide in ethics, worship, and pursuit of freedom. These early gains are now in danger of falling and we need to turn all America once again to God and His word. America can be strong only when each individual looks to God for strength.

MRS. EVERETT EDWARD TOWNLEY
 formerly Sue Johnson

Johnson-Townley Vows Exchanged

In a Sunday afternoon ceremony performed in the First Baptist Church, Fairway Sue Johnson became the bride of Everett Edward Townley.

Rev. Byron Bryant, pastor, read the double ring ceremony at 4 p. m. Nuptial music was presented by Judy Fitzgerald, organist, and Mrs. Jerry Smith, soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Johnson. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Vesta L. Townley of Honolulu, Hawaii.

Mr. Johnson presented his daughter in marriage. She wore a full length gown of beauganza over bridal taffeta. The fitted empire bodice was of re-embroidered Alencon lace with short sleeves and a scalloped neckline. The empire waist of the A-line skirt was marked in the back with a bow which held the full chapel length train of beauganza with re-embroidered Alencon lace panels. Her headpiece was a Dior bow of organza with scattered iridescents and held a fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried stephanotis centered with gardenias on a white Bible. An heirloom, a hand painted button which belonged to the bride's maternal grandmother, was in the bouquet.

Ann Johnson, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Mrs. Bob Johnson of Waco, sister-in-law of the bride was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Margaret Ann Johnson, cousin of the bride, Joyce Smith and Candace Thompson.

They wore two-piece dresses of white linen with straight skirts and cap sleeves. Tulle veils were caught to white linen bows. They carried white fujii mums.

Candlelighters were Mrs. Terry Carter of Abilene and Mrs. Lanny Foster. Their two-piece dresses of pink linen were styled similarly to those of the attendants. Their corsages were of white stock.

Rhonda Martin, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

Charles Prestage of Fort Worth was best man. Ushers and groomsmen were Bob Johnson of Waco, the bride's brother, Bill Richey of Abilene, Edward Bayliss of Medfield, Mass., and Bob Townley of Honolulu, Hawaii, brother of the bridegroom.

Reception was in Fellowship Hall. On the serving table were anthurium brought from Hawaii by the bridegroom's parents.

The bride was an honor graduate from Hamlin High School where she was a member of the Student Council and National Honor Society.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Reno High School, Reno, Nevada. Both are students at Abilene Christian College.

Townley is employed by the U. S. Post Office, Abilene. The couple will live in Abilene at 114 1-2 Washington Blvd.

Parents of the bridegroom were hosts for the rehearsal dinner at the park on the farm of Mrs. Robert S. Johnson, grandmother of the bride.

Mrs. Johnson honored her daughter and the attendants with a salad supper on Friday evening prior to the Sunday afternoon wedding.

The guests were shown the bride's trousseau and also tied rice bags which were used at the wedding.

Attending were Ann Johnson, Mrs. Bob Johnson, Candace Thompson, Gloria Jenkins, Mrs. Lanny Foster, Mrs. Jerry Smith, Sharon Townley and Judy Fitzgerald.

Informal Coffee Thursday Honors Miss Sue Johnson

Sue Johnson, bride-elect of Ed Townley, was complimented with an informal coffee Thursday, at 8:30 a. m. in the E. N. Jenkins home.

A special guest was the mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Vesta Townley of Honolulu, Hawaii.

Mrs. Weldon Johnson, mother of the bride, was wearing for the party a lei of plumeria brought from Hawaii by the Townleys. She in turn presented it to the hostess, Miss Jenkins.

Others attending were Mrs. Robert Johnson, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. J. E. Beard and Mrs. Everett Townley, grandmothers of the groom; Mrs. Camille Simmons; Miss Lola Milstead; Mrs. Jack Townley; Sharon Townley; Mrs. Ray Johnson; and Mrs. E. N. Jenkins.

New Criminal Code to Increase County Cost of Maintaining Courts

When the new criminal code which was signed into law by Governor Connally last week becomes effective on January 1 of next year, it will mean that Jones County's cost of maintaining courts will take a severe jump upward.

County Judge Leon Thurman said Monday that he had read the new code twice and although the full impact may not be revealed until further study, it is apparent that cost of attorneys alone may run the county about $2500 a year.

The new code also will call for the county employing a probation officer at a cost of this much or more.

Judge Thurman pointed out that a recent ruling of the U. S. Supreme Court held that all persons charged with a crime had the right to be represented by an attorney and if they were unable to hire the attorney themselves, then the state must appoint one and bear the cost.

The new Texas criminal code goes further in stating that from January 1 on, this same rule will apply to misdemeanor cases as well as felony. Under present law, a court-appointed attorney receives only $10 in the event of a guilty plea but this amount will be increased to $25, the fee now if there is a trial.

Furthermore, Judge Thurman said, in the case of the defendant is released on bond, the attorney receives no money from the state. Under the new code, he will.

Judge Thurman also pointed out that under the new code there will be no more suspended sentences. These will be replaced with probated terms and the county must employ a probation officer. The law spells out in detail who can qualify for this post and this cost must be borne by the county.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gay visited his sisters, Mrs. O. L. Jenkins and May Gay Saturday. Mr. Gay is editor of the Moody Courier at Moody.

Nosey Neighbor...

by Barbara Craig

Going through Albany Sunday afternoon, it was quite evident that Fandangle season was in full swing. Special flags, a green drape forming the background for the white long horned steer head silhouette, marked the streets. Store windows were decorated with antiques, scenes, and pictures showing the history of the town.

The people of Albany are going all out to make the Fandangle a truly outstanding show again this year. The much publicized outdoor presentation is expected to draw upwards of 6,000 people during the five performances, two of which were held last Friday and Saturday evenings. Other performances are scheduled tonight (Thursday), Friday and Saturday.

Stopping in the drugstore, I found that very little had changed since my high schools days. I noticed the addition of a television set, maybe for the benefit of the "drugstore" cowboys, and refrigerated air conditioning.

The business is in perfect harmony with the Fandangle setting. While many amusement centers are spending a great deal of money to recapture the atmosphere of the "Old West" in their refreshment parlors, Albany, has it already in Weaver-Oates Pharmacy, the spot I knew for many years as Sanders Drug.

Those who stop in to visit during the Fandangle will notice the long black marble "bar" with a generous footrest. There are no stools and those who are waiting to be served their refreshing drink are quite content to "lean."

Looking around, one notices the fixtures which line the walls and see the brass handles on the drawers that form the base and sliding glass doors which cover the neatly arranged drug store items on the shelves above.

Of particular interest to me was the use of stained glass to not only add a decorative touch but to also designate the areas of the store. Across the back of the building I noticed the words, office, radios-phonographs, and prescriptions, spelled out in the stained glass.

Was it nostalgia that caused me to notice these things? Call it what you may, but I found it to be quite interesting way to spend a few minutes in my old home town. I also wonder why I never noticed these things, or at least they did not seem too important, when I was having a Coke, there after school?

I did not see any familiar faces, you know how these kids do grow up in a hurry and those that were in diapers when I left may be the ones behind the counter now. Then John Earl Beall, former mayor and a staunch backer of the Fandangle, came in. His first words were, "are you here for the Fandangle?" That is the kind of enthusiasm you notice in the town.

John Earl was president of our graduating class and is now a building contractor who chose to return to Albany for his home. He and his wife, Ruby, are planning a reception in their home this afternoon to honor Lt. Gov. Preston Smith who is to be in Albany for the parade and Fandangle.

This past weekend was a very important one in the life of several area towns. Winters celebrated their Diamond Jubilee with a great deal of activity, including a speech by Paul Harvey. Knox City's Vegetable Festival was also termed a great success.

This proves what can be done in small towns when an idea is born and followed up by a lot of hard work and co-operation on the part of the citizens.

This weekend, here in Hamlin, the Hamlin Riding Club is staging their annual rodeo and the people of Hamlin will have a chance to be a part of its success.

Carrier

central home air conditioners are built to last

The "Weather Armor" cabinet of this Carrier outdoor section is made of heavy zinc-impregnated steel that withstands the ravages of time and weather better than any other material in use today. Steel is bonderized and finished in baked enamel to stay attractive for years.

This is just one of many quality features built into Carrier residential equipment to give you more for your money. No wonder it has earned the Good Housekeeping Seal of Approval — and that year after year more Carrier air conditioning is sold than any other make.

Sports Illustrated "On test runs at GM's Michigan proving grounds the Corsa started and stopped with no dipping, and it cornered—even at

Motor Trend "Not counting the Corvette, Corvair has the closest thing to performance handling characteristics you'll find on this side of the ocean, with no sacrifice in ride qualities."

FAIRVIEW NEWS

by Mrs. Elmer Joiner

The old saying "scarce than a hen's teeth" applies to the news out this way, this Monday morning. The weather hasn't even made news the past week, most people have their cotton planted for the third time, if they hadn't gotten it up before. If the rain will just hold off for a few more days, it will all be up. Most maize has been laid by, is headed out and hopes are high for bumper maize crop this year.

We had a "big" crowd at church Sunday, with several visitors. Now hearing it called a big crowd would probably be amusing to those visitors who are used to large congregations, but it looked good to us for we barely have enough to carry on some times.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Herington and two sons, spent Saturday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ford, accompanying them to church Sunday morning.

Mrs. Buck Joiner and Susan, spent Saturday night with the Elmer Joiners and came to church with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Flavil Holmes had their children, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Holmes and Melody, Big Springs, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wright, Melinda, Keenyn and Randy, Abilene, visiting them Sunday, also in church with them.

It seems that we made a big mistake, which wasn't the first, last week when we reported that Mr. and Mrs. George Wainscott went to see Jimmy at Wichita Falls, when they didn't go at all, Jimmy came home for the weekend. He also was home again the past weekend.

Nancy Ford came in from college, at Denton, to spend the weekend, with her family, the H. L. Fords.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosenbaum attended a get together of relatives, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moss, Anson, Sunday afternoon. They reported 35 persons present.

Diane Ford left Sunday, with her friend, Connie Christian and her family, to spend a weeks vacation at Lake Texoma and Texas Under Six Flags.

Visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ford, Sunday, besides the Heringtons were Joe E. Ford, Hamlin, and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ford.

Jane Petree and Lanny Ford Set Wedding Date

Frances Jane Petree and Lanny Neal Ford will be married July 9 in the Capps Methodist Church at 8 p. m. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Petree of Abilene and Mr. and Mrs. B. F.

Ford of Hamlin.

Miss Petree is a senior at McMurry where she is a member of T. I. P. Social Club. Ford attended San Angelo and McMurry Colleges.

OLD GLORY ...

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Jennings have returned home from a vacation. They visited a number of their relatives. Their son, Tim, and his wife, Donnice, "carried on" at the Rayer Ranch while his parents were gone.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Dugan recently visited their daughter's family, the Beaty Bryants in Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. (Dobe) Robinson have returned home after a month's visit in Lovington, N. Mex., with their daughter's family, the Bill Bells. Mrs. Bell and children, Judy and Mark, brought them home and stayed several days.

John Steele and children of Boyd have been visiting his sister's family, the R. D. Robinsons.

Michael Vanderworth of Denver, Colo., is her visiting his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Letz and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Vanderworth.

Jana Garner of Abilene recently spent a week here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Garner, and her aunt, Mrs. Willie Mae Fletcher.

Recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Flowers were her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. King of San Angelo, and her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Macon of Rule.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Beno Hertenberger were their son's family, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hertenberger, Mary and Martha of Abilene.

Three girls from Old Glory attended District III Leadership Camp at Lueders on Monday through Wednesday of last week.

Representing Stonewall County at the camp were Judy Sander, Judy White and Rita Baldree. The girls attended classes headed by specialists from A&M University at College Station on Plant Life, You and Your Careers, Wild Life, Civil Defense and Recreation.

The girls presented a demonstration before the general assembly on the Importance of 4-H Records and How We Manage to Keep Our Records Current and Up to Date. The girls were also responsible for a skit for the first evening's entertainment. The last evening the group attended a party.

Judy Sander won first place in the Junior Division swimming races in both the long and short distance contest.

Judy White participated in the Vespers Ceremonial on Monday night and in the subject matter skit on You and Your Careers before the general assembly Wednesday morning. Rita Baldree was in the group that presented a skit on recreation that morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Mick Myers and girls, Louise, Kay and Lois, moved to Morgan last week. We regret to lose this family from our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Callicotte and children, Guy and Jill, were here last week visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Letz and Mr. and Mrs. Delos Callicotte.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

America in its early days depended on the "GOOD BOOK" for its guide in ethics, worship, and pursuit of freedom. These early gains are now in danger of falling and we need to turn all America once again to God and His word. America can be strong only when each individual looks to God for strength.

If you're in the market for central air conditioning, this ad can save you hundreds of dollars!

GAS AIR CONDITIONING SAVES MONEY AND HEADACHES YEAR AFTER YEAR

You save in operating efficiency, low maintenance, amazingly long service. Combined heating and cooling costs with gas are substantially lower than for electric heating and cooling. Add to that the savings in maintenance and electric compressor replacements and you'll see why gas is your best home air conditioning investment.

LOW DOWN PAYMENT, AS LITTLE AS $25/MO. FOR 2.8-TON UNIT

This new gas unit for medium-size homes both cools and heats ... puts the world's finest air conditioning in reach of everyone.

HOW GAS UNITS CAN LAST TWICE AS LONG AS ELECTRIC

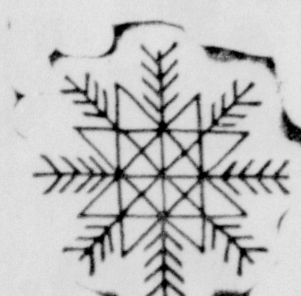

Gas cooling for homes has no compressor. A simple gas flame is the heart of the cooling cycle — with few moving parts to wear or need repair. No wonder the life-expectancy of gas air conditioning is double that of compressor types!

SPECIAL SUMMER GAS AIR CONDITIONING RATES

Owners of gas air conditioners get reduced gas rates for cooling during the hot summer months. This makes for even more economy from an efficient gas unit!

CALL FOR A FREE ESTIMATE ON GAS AIR CONDITIONING. NO OBLIGATION.

Don't be fooled by "horseback estimates" on costs! Get a bona fide air conditioning price from Lone Star Gas and compare with the price of the same size electric unit. You'll find the little extra per month to buy a gas unit buys you a lot more air conditioning over the years! There are two types of gas systems for the home: a combination cooling and heating system and an add-on cooling system. Investigate the possibility of gas air conditioning your home now.
